A Journey begins with a single step.
Once taken,
who knows what Adventures lay ahead!

Be kind to yourself. We all start somewhere.

In the cold, remote north, Eishaven waits. Home of refugees and outcasts. Home of Candida, princess-no-more, making a life on the edge of the world with Shun, her wife & fellow runaway.

In the waters off the coast of Eishaven, a burning ship sinks. In its hold, Candida finds only one survivor, the bright but scared unicorn filly named Nessa. With her comes a quest . . . and a threat to shatter this newfound family. Many threats. Imperial unicorn soldiers. Gryphon renegades. Vengeful family. And at the end of the path, on the precipice of the happy ending, the nightmare of all Wolf-Lords . . . LE FAY.

In this fantastical new story, following after the events of A LIFE OUT THERE, author Brian McNatt takes readers on a journey expanding the world of Heraldale—and Princess Candida's place in it—in ways they could never imagine.
